

Memorandum of Intent for Collaboration Between Andean Health Hipólito Unanue Convention and Maastricht University, Maastricht, the Netherlands Regarding Leadership Education for Health in Venezuela, Colombia, Ecuador, Perú, Bolivia, and Chile.

This letter serves to document the collaboration of Dr. María del Carmen Calle Dávila de Saavedra, executive secretariat, Andean Health Hipólito Unanue Convention, established in Lima, Perú, and Dr. Katarzyna Czabanowska of School Care and Public Health Research Institute (CAPHRI), Faculty of Health, Medicine and Life Sciences (FHML), Maastricht University, established in Maastricht, the Netherlands (each a “Party” and collectively, the “Parties”), set forth this Memorandum of Intent for Collaboration (“Memorandum”) on this.

The Parties intend for this Memorandum to mark their initial steps toward increasingly greater collaboration. The Parties intend to formulate specific plans for leadership competency-based education for health in multiple stakeholders, including the individuals working in health care, and ministries. This includes joint oversight and guidance on development of research proposals and protocols, human subjects and ethics review of research, review of draft documents, co authorship on articles, and applying for grants to foster leadership education in the region.

Prior to initiating any program or project, the Parties shall enter into an agreement setting for the specific details of the proposed program or project, including the personnel involved, the duration of the program or project, and the source of any funding if required. Each such agreement, prior to becoming effective, shall be vetted in accordance with each Party’s internal policies and procedures and signed by an authorized representative of each Party. Each subsequent program or project must be organized and administered in accordance with applicable law and the relevant policies and procedures of each party.

This Memorandum shall not be construed as creating any legally binding rights or obligation on the part of either party and shall not be enforceable in law or equity in any court or tribunal for any purpose.

Signed,

Dr. María del Carmen Calle Dávila de Saavedra
